Thanks Carrie, yes that's what we negotiated last night with OPS. The initial ask was 120.

UPDATE to last email

Carrie, no the NCRCC, POU and uniform are within the city of Ottawa.
The remaining are in support of our deployed members and OPP operations in relation to the actual convoy.

These numbers will decrease starting tomorrow. EOC is collapsed into the NCRCC. No more traffic, QRT and (IC & Logistics) will be collapsed to approx. 4 people. If additional truck convoy members attend on the weekend it may impact our provincial highways and it will be an operational decision to stand up EOC.

Deployed POU and uniform numbers will stay the same unless the request from OPS is changed.

Hello Supt Abrams, do the numbers being reported on only include those assigned within the City of Ottawa.

Chief Thomas, Commissioner also wanted to ensure you had opportunity to review these prior to us sharing. Please advise if any issues.

Thank you,
Carrie.

Hi Carrie – the SG and PO are requesting the general numbers with respect to deployment to of policing personnel in the Ottawa convoy protests today? Are you also able to distinguish between OPP provincial support versus the numbers from other?
